The City West Hotel, Dublin is the venue next Thursday for the "Fleet Bus and Coach Magazine awards". We're delighted to report that Fitzpatrick Coaches have been nominated in the prestigious "Coach Operator of the Year 2014" category.

The awards are very much seen as the "Oscars" for the transportation industry, so to be shortlisted for the premier award is a considerable achievement for the Glaslough based Coach Operator.

Founded in 1989 by husband and wife team Larry and Mary, Fitzpatrick's is a very successful family run business. The driving force behind the recent successes is Larry and Mary's son Pascal, who has in a short time established Fitzpatrick Coaches as one of Ireland's leading Coach Tour Operators.

Even in the midst of recession Fitzpatrick's has continued to invest and expand to now operate a major fleet of vehicles ranging in size from 8 to 53 seats. All the touring coaches are 5* Failte Ireland approved and come complete with Wi-Fi, DVD, Toilet, Refreshments and air conditioning to make travelling with Fitzpatrick Coaches a truly relaxing and enjoyable experience.

Commenting on the nomination Pascal said "This is a team effort and the personal and professional service we provide is what our customers appreciate. We pride ourselves in exceeding our client's requirements and expectations".

The awards are announced next Thursday the 10th at a glittering occasion in Dublin and we all hope Fitzpatrick Coaches come home "Coach Operator of the Year 2014".
